

London Student Assembly: OUR Political Voice

A panel and discussion event with politicians, youth leaders and students from London Universities, all ready to be heard.

16:00 – 21:00 Friday 22 November, Logan Hall, Institute of Education, UCL

Agenda:

- 16:00 – 17:15 Stalls and Networking in the hall
Organisations, Youth Groups, Political Societies
Voter Registration
Networking
- 17:15 Assembly doors open
- 17:30 Assembly begins – Introduction
Welcome from our Chairs: Welcome from our Chairs: Democracy, Operations and Community Officer and Community Relations Officer
- 17:40 Opening Statements from our Politicians
Matthew Kirk, from the Liberal Democrats
Chuka Ummuna, from the Liberal Democrats
Caroline Russell, from the Green Party
Johnny Luk, from the Conservative Party
Lara McNeil, from the Labour Party
- 18:05 The Youth Engagement Panel
Mete Coban, from MyLifeMySay
Matteo Bergamini, from Shoutout UK
Erica Ramos, from the NUS
Amanda Chetwynd-Cowieson, Co-Founder of For Our Future's Sake

Introductions
Panel Questions
Questions to the panel
- 18:45 The Political Panel
Caroline Russell, Leader of the Green Party in the City Hall
Matthew Kirk, Liberal Democrat candidate for Holborn and St Pancras
Johnny Luk, Conservative candidate for Hampstead and Kilburn
Hannah Jarman, former Young Greens Executive Board member
Lara McNeill, Labour Party National Executive Committee Youth and Student Rep

Introductions
Panel Questions
- 19:10 Open Forum: OUR Political Voice
Questions to the politicians
Points to the assembly
- 19:50 Closing Remarks
- 20:00 – 21:00 Networking in the hall with refreshments